Topics Covered:

➤Communication Skills Employers highly value clear and effective communication. CRT classes help students develop their vocabulary, grammar, and comprehension skills, enabling them to communicate confidently during interviews and written assessments.

➤Comprehension and Analysis: Many job roles require employees to read, understand, and analyse information. Verbal ability training helps students improve their reading comprehension and critical analysis skills.

➤ Quantitative aptitude training helps students develop problem-solving skills by working through numerical problems and puzzles. This enhances their ability to approach complex tasks logically and efficiently.

➤Technical training often involves hands-on exercises and projects, allowing students to apply their knowledge in real-world scenarios, which is invaluable for job redlines.

Training, Placement & Career Guidance Cell organised "A Five-Day CRT Training on Quantitative Aptitude and Logical Reasoning" from 06.09.21 to 10.09.21, for B.Tech. students. Mr. Mahesh The resource person created awareness about quantitative aptitude and logical reasoning among final year students. Initially, he guided the students about the importance of problem- solving techniques.

Topics covered:

➤ Organisers: The Training and Placement Cell (TP) and Career Guidance (CG) departments jointly conducted a five-day Campus Recruitment Training (CRT) programme.

➤ Date and Duration: The training sessions occurred from 06.09.21 to 10.09.21, covering a duration of five days.

➤ Target Audience: The training was specifically designed for B.Tech. students, indicating its relevance for those pursuing engineering degrees.

➤ Training Modules: The CRT programme focused primarily on two key areas: quantitative aptitude and logical reasoning, crucial components for job placements.

➤ Focus on Quantitative Aptitude and Logical Reasoning: The main thrust of the training was to enhance students' proficiency in quantitative aptitude and logical reasoning, essential skills sought after by recruiters in various industries.

➤ Awareness Creation: The resource person, undertook the responsibility of raising awareness among third- and final-year B.Tech. students regarding the significance of quantitative aptitude and logical reasoning in the recruitment process.

Guidance on Problem-Solving Techniques: At the outset of the training, Resource person guided the students about the importance of problem-solving techniques, indicating a hands-on approach towards improving their skills in tackling quantitative and logical problems efficiently.

The Training, placements and career guidance cell of our college is organizing A FIVE-DAY CRT TRAINING Verbal Quantitative Aptitude, Logical Reasoning and Coding Skills" from 16-11-2020 TO 20-11-2020. Srihari Soft skills trainer Talent India, Hyderabad has been consented to be the resource person for the CRT classes. The resource person created awareness about coding for final year students. Initially, he guided the students about the importance of coding techniques.

Topics covered-

➤Organizers: The TP (Training and Placement cell) and CG (Career Guidance) jointly organized a five-day CRT (Campus Recruitment Training) programme

➤Date and Duration: The training took place from 16.11.20 to 20.11.20, spanning five days.

➤Target Audience: The programme was tailored for IV B. Tech students, indicating it was likely relevant for those pursuing engineering degrees.

➤ Training Modules: The training encompassed diverse areas crucial for job placements, covering quantitative aptitude, logical reasoning, verbal skills, and coding.

➤Focus on Coding: One notable aspect of the training was the emphasis on coding. Mr. Srihari, Soft Skills Trainer the resource person, enlightened the third- and final- year students about the significance of coding techniques in the contemporary job market.

➤Awareness Creation: The sessions conducted by Mr. Srihari, Soft Skills Trainer were likely geared towards creating awareness among students regarding the role and importance of coding skills, especially in the context of career opportunities and job placements.

Guidance: Initially, Mr. Srihari, Soft Skills Trainer provided guidance to the students on various aspects of coding, presumably including its applications, relevance across different industries, and perhaps basic coding principles or languages.
